

Glossary of Game Terms

ballot	(n.) a ticket or piece of paper used to vote in an election	government	(n.) an organization that is in control of a country, state, city... campaign	(n.) the organization, and set of activities, that works to get a person elected to political office	issues	(n.) important subjects or topics that people are talking or thinking about candidate	(n.) a person trying to be elected to a position in government	mayor	(n.) elected leader of a city or town, often the mayor works closely with the city council civic engagement	(n.) being involved with your city or town and the residents	oppose	(v.) to disagree with or disapprove of (something or someone) city council	(n.) group of people who are elected by residents to make decisions for the city or town	qualification	(n.) a special skill or type of experience or knowledge that makes someone suitable to do a particular job or activity community	(n.) a group of people who share a location, government, social space	quality	(n.) how good something is; a characteristic or feature that someone or something has debate	(n.) a public discussion of important questions, involves differing opinions	red flag	(idiom) an expression used as a warning signal, it indicates something that demands attention election	(n.) the process of selecting someone for a public office by voting	research	(v.) to collect information about or investigate (something) elect	(v.) to select (someone) for a position by voting endorsement	(n.) a public or official statement of support or approval	support	(n.) approval or encouragement (v.) give assistance to, especially financially endorse	(v.) to publicly/officially say you support or approve of (someone or something) experience	(n.) skill or knowledge that you get by doing something (v.) to do or see (something) or have (something) happen to you	town hall	(n.) event where public officials or political candidates address an audience by answering the public's questions funding	(n.) money provided for a particular purpose, like political campaigns or other projects	vote	(v.) to make a selection during an election voter	(n.) a choice made when participating in an election; person who votes

